

AGAPE YOUTH MINISTRY (AYM) is a nondenominational Christian, faith-based 501(c)(3) non-profit Arizona corporation, which established the AGAPE YOUTH RANCH. The mission of AYM is to help hurting / at-risk teens through hands-on Christian-based programs held at the Agape Youth Ranch, located in southeast Arizona at the base of the Chiricahua Mountains.

POSITION: BUNKHOUSE LEADER / PARENTS.

COMPENSATION: This is a self-supporting missionary opportunity, where the successful candidate will be joining us on the “ground floor” of implementing the At-Risk Teens’ Residential Program. Once the program is implemented, i.e., having enrolled a minimum of 4 teens, AYM will then be able to provide a supplemental support. Housing and basic utilities are provided.

Qualifications required for this position include, but are not limited to:

- The position could be filled by an adult individual, or by a married adult couple;
- A high school diploma or equivalency degree
- Born-again Christian, well-grounded in the Bible and actively living in his/her faith;
- Has a God-given desire to help change the lives of struggling teens;
- Parenting experience;
- Solid family orientation on which to draw when modeling this value to teens;
- Has good communication skills, as well as being a dependable team player;
- Willingness to work under authority (School Director and/or CEO);
- Able to be very flexible in his/her duties and responsibilities; and
- A minimum of two (2) years commitment is required.

The position includes, but is not limited to: coordinating the teens' activities & recreation, working with other staff members, facilitating / participating in Bible studies, mentoring teens through problems and challenges, as well as applying tough love at times, and enforcing rules and policies of AYR, which may entail assigning consequences for teen offenders.
